George and Martha: The Complete Stories of Two Best Friends

George and Martha is a series of children's books written and illustrated by James Marshall between 1972 and 1988. Each book in the series contains five short stories describing interactions between two hippos, George and Martha. The books inspired an animated children's television show which comprised 26 episodes made in 1999, and a musical made in 2011.

Great friends aren't hard to find--they're right here! Houghton Mifflin is delighted to publish two more George and Martha readers. Using original art and text from James Marshall's storybooks, the tales are reformatted for beginning readers. Marshall's themes are all resonant with a reading-age child--navigating the waters of first friendships, honesty versus kindness, curiosity versus privacy. These are the kind of deeply humorous, deeply true stories that inspire a love of reading! In these two stories, George and Martha are still riding round and round on their delightful whirlwind of friendship. Story Number One: The Attic Martha wants to tell George a scary story but scares herself before she can even tell it. Story Number Two: The Surprise Martha learns to forgive George, but she does not forget.
