This book was written for my students and all those wishing to learn apitherapy while learning how to honor the honeybee, our most important pollinator. This book has sections on Beeswax, Apilarnil, Royal Jelly, N-Chromosome Royal Jelly, Pollen, Beebread, Honey, Honeydew Honey, Propolis, and Bee Venom with a section on stinging for Lyme disease. There are pictures of what the product looks like during the creation and after completion; pictures on removing the stinger for micro and half stings and how to do a full sting; bee venom reactions; spine chart for Lyme, etc. Recipes follow each section. You will learn what the Integrative Chiropractic conference and which provide information on the present status of our knowledge in this area. In spite of their diversity, they reflect the mainstream of the conference, namely: "Imported" Products (honey, pollen and propolis), Exocrine Secretions of Workers (venom, royal jelly). Toxicity and Contaminants, Quality Control, Marketing, Apitherapy, Cosmetics, etc. Since antiquity, honey as well as other bee products were used as food, as a cure for ailments of humans and animals, and as cosmetics. We hope that this volume will contribute to interdisciplinary studies on chemical composition, pharmacological effects, nutrition, and other aspects of bee products. research may unravel the yet unknown composition and mode of action of bee products and elucidate many unanswered questions. The noteworthy features of this conference were the participants from all parts of the world and of different cultural backgrounds, who shared their keen interest and curiosity regarding honey bees and their products. We thank all of them for their personal contribution to the success of this conference.

Apitherapy is the Complementary and Alternative Medicine that promotes the use of bee products (honey, honeydew, mead, propolis, geopropolis, hive air, beeswax, honeycomb capping, pollen, bee bread, apitoxin or bee venom,

The food products of bees have long been attributed with many health benefits. They can lead to greater stamina, increased resistance to disease, and, counterintuitively, often help reduce pollen allergies. Scientific studies have revealed that bee propolis, royal jelly, honey, and bee pollen are rich sources of
